Sparkling Performance then Despair at Silverstone

Jakob Ebrey Photography

For the next three rounds the BTCC circus rolled in to the home circuit of Triple Eight - Silverstone.

The MG showed good pace on the Saturday with solid performances in both the free practice, finishing fourth and second respectively. Qualifying was scuppered, however, when his flying lap was blocked by a BMW leaving him in ninth place on the grid for race one.

Race one would be run on the soft compound tyre and was progressing well until contact from behind meant Jack had to come into the pits for a check over. The decision to pit proved to be a good one as Jack then had clear track to set a quick time for race two grid position and finished off on the second row. A late puncture saw a second visit to the pits and a finish two laps down on the rest of the field.

Race two was to be the pinnacle of Jack's weekend. Starting from the front row, Andy Priaulx managed a flying start to relegate Jack to third, a position he held until Jackson got a puncture on lap 15. Managing to hold off Aron Smith, Jack crossed the line in second place to earn his first trophy from a non-reverse grid race.

Race three would again see Jack visit the pits, this time after contact from Priaulx's BMW. The mechanics rushed to get his MG back in the race albeit six laps down, seeing Jack finish in a non-classified position.
